Museum Revises Public Hours

The Greenville County Museum of Art will change its gallery schedule, beginning in November, extending daytime public access on weekdays and closing to the public on Tuesdays.

“Closing on Tuesdays will allow museum staff the opportunity to create and manage events and exhibitions more effectively,” said Museum Executive Director Tom Styron. “Administrative staff will work as usual on Tuesdays, but the building will be closed to the public. Our total weekly public hours will increase with this new schedule.”

The change takes effect during the week of November 5. The Museum will be closed as usual on Monday, November 5, and Tuesday, November 6. Thereafter, the galleries will be open from 10:00–6:00 Wednesday–Saturday and from 1:00–5:00 on Sunday. The Museum is always closed on major holidays.
