2. Full documentation (as written on page 1) must accompany the reproduction, either directly under it, on the page facing, on the reverse, or elsewhere in the publication, such as in the index or list of illustrations. In the case of filmstrips, films, video, etc., the information must appear either in an adjacent frame, in the credits, or in accompanying materials.

The GCMA gives no exclusive rights to any publisher, author, or photographer and makes no warranties or representations and assumes no responsibility whatsoever for any claims against applicant or the GCMA by an artist, his agent, estate or any other party in connection with the reproduction of works of art in the collection of the GCMA. Additionally, the applicant agrees to indemnify the GCMA and hold it harmless against any and all such claims, including copyright infringement claims, royalty or fee demands and/or actions, including the costs thereof, arising as a result of the applicant's reproduction of the works of art in the collection of the GCMA.

It is the responsibility of the publisher to directly contact copyright owner and obtain permission. Reproductions of all copyrighted works must bear the copyright notice as prescribed by the Copyright Act of 1976 of the United States. The Museum can grant the permission requested only to the extent of its ownership of the rights relating to the request.

Any and all royalty payments or other requirements specified by the copyright owner of such a work must be adhered to by the publisher or agent requesting reproduction permission.

9. Any unauthorized use of photographic materials supplied by the GCMA by any person or entity, for any reason, will render the applicant responsible and liable to the GCMA for appropriate compensation and other costs, regardless of whether the applicant has profited or is responsible for such unauthorized use.
10. The GCMA reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to refuse permission for further applications from a publisher or other applicant, if in its opinion, acceptable standards of reproduction of the GCMA objects have not been obtained or if adherence to the terms of previous contracts has not been upheld.
